Release details have been revealed for BEST WORST MOVIE, the documentary on TROLL 2, its cast/creators and its cult legacy by Michael Paul Stephenson, who starred in the memorably strange/awful Italian flick at age 10. The nationwide rollout via Area23A begins with an opening-night event at Austin, TX's Alamo Drafthouse.

On Friday, April 23, the Drafthouse screenings (times to be announced) will be followed by Q&As with Stephenson and TROLL 2 leading man/BEST WORST MOVIE "protagonist" George Hardy. There will then be a after-party at The Highball (free to screening-ticket holders) with a showing of TROLL 2 and folks from the film in attendance.

Subsequent BEST WORST MOVIE opening dates (many of these screenings will also host cast and crew) are as follows:

May 14: New York, NY's Village East Cinema

May 21: Los Angeles, CA's Landmark Nuart

June 4: San Francisco, CA's Landmark Lumiere

June 4: Berkeley, CA's Landmark Shattuck

July 2: Washington, D.C.'s Landmark E Street Cinema

July 16: St. Louis, MO's Landmark Tivoli

July 23: Atlanta, GA's Landmark Midtown Art Cinema

More announcements are forthcoming, so keep an eye on the BEST WORST MOVIE official website, visit the Facebook page too, and check out the new trailer below.
