It’s been a busy couple of days for horror disc announcements, and there are still more to let you know about…

• David Arquette of the SCREAM films and THE TRIPPER stars in THE COTTAGE (no relation to the British horror/comedy of the same title), coming on DVD October 9 from Entertainment One . Kristen Dalton from TV’s THE DEAD ZONE (who also produced with Bettina O’Mara) and Victor Brown play a financially struggling couple who rent out the cottage behind their house to get some extra money. The new tenant is Robert Mars (Arquette), a novelist who at first appears charming but soon proves to have dark secrets. Chris Jaymes directed from a script by Nick Antosca; the disc (with no bonus features) retails for $19.98.

Entertainment One also has the long-awaited U.S. disc release of the Japanese horror/comedy BIG TITS ZOMBIE on tap for November 20. Written and directed by SEXUAL PARASITE: KILLER PUSSY’s Takao Nakano, it’s about a group of small-town strippers/prostitutes who foolishly read aloud a passage from a Book of the Dead and have to fight off the zombie attack that results. No special features have yet been announced for this DVD, which presents the movie in both 2D and 3D and also retails for $19.98; watch the not-necessarily-safe-for-work trailer below.

{youtube}UQLi1UiWo8E{/youtube}

ERIKA CHRISTENSEN
JESSE METCALFE
FROM THE PRODUCERS OF SAW THE TORTURED

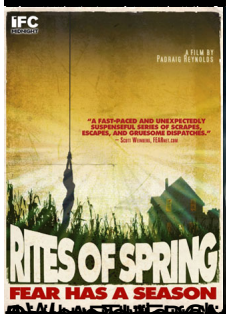
iFC
ARE YOU ALONE IN YOUR HOUSE?
THE PACT
SUNDANCE
"TERRIFYING. MIGHT ACTUALLY MAKE YOU AFRAID TO TURN OUT THE LIGHTS EVER AGAIN."



iFC
A FILM BY
PADRAIG REYNOLDS
"A FAST-PACED AND UNEXPECTEDLY SUSPENSEFUL SERIES OF SCRAPES, ESCAPES, AND GRUESOME DISPATCHES."
RITES OF SPRING
FEAR HAS A SEASON

THE GHOSTMAKER
THERE IS A PRICE TO PAY