You love Astron-6's throwback masterpiece MANBORG, right? Well, FANGORIA is offering you a chance to win two VIP tickets to the screening in Hamilton, Ontario this coming Friday November 16th at 7 p.m. You will receive two tickets to the show, get a reserved seat in the VIP area, free copies of FANGORIA, MANBORG swag courtesy of Raven Banner Entertainment and an exclusive meet -and-greet opportunity with MANBORG director Steven Kostanski.

All you have to do to win is be the first to complete our scavenger hunt! Here is your assignment, should you choose to accept it –

• Go over to the official MANBORG website and correctly identify two of the VHS tape covers you find there.

• Name the other four members of Astron-6.

• Correctly name two other Astron-6 films (BIO-COP doesn't count!)

• Quote at least one full sentence from Dave Pace's first Long Live the New Flesh blog entry about MANBORG (which is lurking here at FANGORIA.com!)

• Name a non-Astron-6 film with a Steven Kostanski credit.

• Name at least 2 other Raven Banner titles.

Go forth to the interwebs and gather the data to unlock your chance to win and defeat Count Draculon! When you think you have it all, email your entry to dave.pace@fangoria.com and be sure to put DEFEAT DRACULON in the subject line!

That's your mission, renegade. The future depends on you.
