FANGORIA will host a free screening of the new Jeffrey Combs horror-thriller WOULD YOU RATHER on Thursday, February 7 at 7:30 p.m. at New York City's IFC Center (323 Sixth Avenue at 3rd Street; 212-924-7771). Directed by David Guy Levy, WOULD YOU RATHER also stars THE VICIOUS KIND's Brittany Snow, C.H.U.D.'s John Heard and SMASH CUT's Sasha Grey in the tale of an aristocratic madman and the victims he forces to play a deadly game. See below for more details and pics.

The Fango screening of WOULD YOU RATHER will be a free show; to obtain tickets, send an e-mail to fangoriascreening@gmail.com. You must list “WOULD YOU RATHER” as your subject line. Offer is good for you and one guest. Names will be checked at the door, so tell us your full name in the e-mail. Offer is first come, first served, and we will confirm your RSVP. Seating is not guaranteed, however. This advance preview is presented by IFC Films, which opens WOULD YOU RATHER on February 8 in limited release and VOD.

Here's WOULD YOU RATHER's official synopsis: “In the wake of her parents' death, Iris [Snow] struggles to make ends meet while caring for her terminally ill younger brother. Shepard Lambrick [Combs], a seemingly philanthropic aristocrat, expresses an interest in helping them. When he invites her to an exclusive dinner party, she accepts. Also attending the dinner party are seven more desperate individuals. They soon find themselves trapped in Lambrick's mansion and forced to play a sadistic game of Would You Rather, where the winner will be awarded untold amounts of money. As the game progresses, the dilemmas Iris and the other players face grow increasingly deadly.”
