It's time to join Boone, and take a trip to Midian! FANGORIA is proud to announce that we are teaming up with Days of the Dead Entertainment to host a screening of the rare, recently assembled "Cabal Cut" of NIGHTBREED in Los Angeles!

Since the release of Clive Barker's NIGHTBREED over 20 years ago, there has been endless discussion of missing and deleted material. The "Cabal Cut" is the rare print that includes many of the once lost pieces, helping to rebuild the seminal author's original vision.

FANGORIA and Days of the Dead are incredibly pleased to announce that they will be hosting a screening of the most up-to-date version of the "Cabal Cut" at the New Beverly Theater (7165 West Beverly Blvd) in Los Angeles, CA, Sunday, June 10th at 7:30 p.m. This is an event you will not want to miss—and you just never know who might show up for a special intro and Q&A!

Tickets will be on sale soon at the New Beverly's site and are expected to sell out quickly, so keep watch and don't wait.

Here is Seraphim Film's account of the "Cabal Cut":

"In 2009 Seraphim's Mark Miller contacted Morgan Creek and found out that there may well be more to the myth than anyone had thought. Two European encoded VHS tapes were discovered and sent to Phil and Sarah Stokes, who run Clive Barker's website, Revelations. They viewed the tapes and saw what nobody had seen in almost two decades; additional NIGHTBREED footage. Phil and Sarah transferred the footage to DVD and, with Clive's approval, announced to the world that missing footage for Clive's film had been found. Thanks to their hard work and far reaching publicity, the original workprint was screened at Horror

Hound convention in March 2010.

Inspired to see Clive's original vision come to light, filmmaker Russell Cherrington, longtime friend of Clive Barker and Seraphim, took the DVD back to England and, working with editor Jimmi Johnson and Clive Barker's original script, created the new cut of NIGHTBREED, composited from the two VHS sources and the original Warner Brothers DVD. The original cinema release of NIGHTBREED was fused with the workprint to create THE CABAL CUT.

THE CABAL CUT was screened at The Mad Monster Party in Charlotte NC where a Q&A with took place that featured Anne Bobby (Lori), Craig Sheffer (Boone), Mark Miller (Producer for Seraphim), and Russell Cherrington (Restoration Director). During this panel discussion, Anne called out for the fans to make their voices heard. She told them to Occupy Midian and the fans of NIGHTBREED have done exactly that.

And now, due to popular demand, Clive Barker and Seraphim are proud to announce the launch of Occupy Midian. This is the definitive site for people to visit pertaining to all things NIGHTBREED. The official Teaser Trailer for this epic Cut of NIGHTBREED is available for viewing exclusively on the site."
