FANGORIA

FANGORIA #317 doesn't hit the shelves or arrive in your mailbox till next month, but we've got the first peek at the cover and the full contents to share with you now! This time, we've got a very special piece of art fronting a very special issue.

Our cover image is a photo composite by THE BLOODY BEST PROJECT's Ama Lea, featuring RE-ANIMATOR star Barbara Crampton bringing you the head of her director, Stuart Gordon. The actress conducts a lengthy, revealing career interview with Gordon in this issue's pages—and that's not our only salute to the genre's past. A special Class of 1982 section features 30-year anniversary interviews with the folks behind the cult favorites AMITYVILLE II: THE POSSESSION, HALLOWEEN III: SEASON OF THE WITCH, ALONE IN THE DARK and CLASS OF 1984. And there's plenty of new-movie coverage too, as we chat with the directors of V/H/S, HOUSE AT THE END OF THE STREET and SINISTER, and lots more. Head down past the cover for the full details!

PREVIEW: "HOUSE AT THE END OF THE STREET" Beware what dwells within its walls, even if you're as tough as Jennifer Lawrence.

PREVIEW: "HYPOTHERMIA" If the cold of a frozen lake doesn't kill you, what's lurking under the ice will.

INTERVIEW: JODELLE FERLAND A horror veteran in her teens, the actress speaks up for "ParaNorman" and other new genre films.

PREVIEW: "SINISTER" The director of "The Exorcism of Emily Rose" afflicts Ethan Hawke with different sorts of demons.

INTERVIEW: STUART GORDON This time, he's the talking head as his frequent star Barbara Crampton queries him on his long, illustrious career. Plus: looking back on living "Dolls."

CLASS OF 1982: RUTANYA ALDA She presided over a seriously dysfunctional family in "Amityville II: The Possession."

CLASS OF 1982: TOMMY LEE WALLACE The first of his many scary scripts had him making the return trip to "Amityville."

CLASS OF 1982: STACEY NELKIN When "Halloween III" went in new directions, she was along for the ride.

CLASS OF 1982: DWIGHT SCHULTZ Four howlin' mad psychos made life hell for his psychiatrist character in "Alone in the Dark."

CLASS OF 1982: MARK L. LESTER High-school violence reached gory new heights in this
