Class gets cut in first teaser for "DITCH"

Written by Samuel Zimmerman Wednesday, 16 January 2013 00:50

Catch the first look at this low budget shocker below.

Written by LAKE DEAD and FARMHOUSE scribe, Daniel P Coughlin, DITCH is the directorial debut of Joe Hendrick. Currently finishing up post, the film looks of note thanks to star Bill Oberst Jr.—who is unforgettable in his brief, but nutso turn in Justin Benson and Aaron Moorhead's RESOLUTION (on VOD January 23 from Tribeca)—and beloved, veteran genre staple Lynn Lowry.

In DITCH, Vick's (Oberst) past is linked with Jenny's (Katy Foley). Jenny has made a mistake somewhere in her past, one which she knows nothing about. Both characters will collide as Vick desires revenge for this past wrong.

You can keep up with DITCH and its future plans at the film's official Facebook.

{youtube}PQLOc5vcHMA{/youtube}