"THE GIRL" looks an intense, behind-the-scenes psychodrama

Written by Samuel Zimmerman Monday, 10 September 2012 10:30

HBO's upcoming chronicle of Alfred Hitchcock's obsessive relationship with THE BIRDS star Tippi Hedren has got itself a longer trailer.

After two, briefly unsettling teasers, the latest clip offers a fuller look at the drama and eerie intensity with which Hitchcock laid on Hedren midst filming THE BIRDS. Director Julian Jarrold (RED RIDING: 1974) looks to be swimming in a suspenseful, stylish aesthetic, while unsurprisingly Toby Jones may just disappear in his portrayal of The Master.

THE GIRL premieres on HBO, Saturday, October 20 at 9 p.m.

{youtube}HxMsIIwsCZU{/youtube}